

" Well, for a start, there was Mr Cassidy when he came over to Luxy recently to record a show. It was great to meet him again, and hand over the rather large selection of parcels and letters that fans had sent to me for him. Made the house a lot tidier when they were gone! Three David fans caught a train over from England especially for the interview, and then were crafty enough to book themselves on the same flight back to England that Mr C was travelling on. Ten out of ten for initiative!"
